An annual listing of articles published in BENEFITS CANADA over the past year

EDITORIAL INDEX

ADMINISTRATION

PAs MADE EASY How to calculate pension adjustments; Sharon Syvret Terry, December 1990

PIECES OF THE PUZZLE How the switch from a defined benefit to a defined contribution pension plan affects a company's administration system; Peter C. Dunlop and Elaine A. Dupuis, September 1990

ADMINISTRATIVE RISK The personal liability risk involved in administrating pension plans in Ontario; Nancy D. Chaplick, July/August 1990

IN-HOUSE SOLUTIONS Bringing defined benefit pension administration in-house can reduce costs and complexity; Nancy Bramm, June 1990

THE PRUDENT ADMINISTRATOR How to choose the pension administrator and how a prudent administrator should act; Susan Seller, June 1990

MANAGEMENT A special BENEFITS CANADA supplement on pension and benefits administration; April 1990

ASSET MIX

EYING INDUSTRY ALLOCATION Industry allocation will guide the international portfolio strategy of the future; Michael Gallimore, October 1990

A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE Pension fund managers should reassess their asset mix and leave the comfort of the United States; Harry S. Marmer, October 1990

WHO CALLS THE SHOTS A look at who should be making asset mix allocation decisions; Chris Nowakowski, October 1990

AND NOW FOR SOMETHING COMPLETELY DIFFERENT Opportunities offered by unlevered commodities; Donald Anderson, May 1990

BON VOYAGE The impact on asset mix as pension fund investments move offshore; Paul Williams, May 1990

BENEFIT PROGRAMS

GST Q & A How the proposed Goods and Services Tax will affect employee benefit plans; Ian Bancroft and Andrew Yorke, December 1990

ALL IN THE FAMILY The legal definition of the word 'family' in benefits contracts is being challenged by homosexuals; October 1990

THE ULTIMATE BALANCING ACT Benefit plans should reflect the difficulty involved in balancing work and family; Nancy Bramm, July/August 1990

CHECKS AND BALANCES Claims audits can reduce group benefit costs; Kathy Horahan, June 1990

BENEFITS IN THE FREE TRADE ERA Comparing benefits and compensation in Canada and the United States; Nancy Bramm and Paul Williams, March 1990

TAKING TIME TO SMELL THE ROSES Sabbatical programs can ward off executive burn outs; Nancy Bramm, January/February 1990

BOND MANAGEMENT

GETTING MORE FOR YOUR MONEY The growing trend of index bond management; Gilles Tremblay, July/August 1990

CANADIAN PENSION CONFERENCE

ROAD TO REGINA A special BENEFITS CANADA supplement saluting 30 years of the Canadian Pension Conference; June 1990

COMMUNICATIONS

LEMON AID Communicating the new tax rules to employees; Andrew Webster, December 1990

BACK TO SCHOOL A quiz to test the effectiveness of your company's communications strategy; Ruta Skelton, September 1990

COMMUNICATIONS IS THE KEY When implementing a flexible benefits plan, communication is key; Nancy Bramm, May 1990

COMPENSATION

THE NEW COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY Designing reward systems for companies faced with changing economics and demographics; C. Terrence Walker, April 1990

THE ABCs OF COMPENSATION IN THE NINETIES The changing role of cash and non-cash compensation; Nancy Bramm, January/February 1990

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

HOLIDAY PREDICTIONS Experts' predictions in the new year; Nancy Bramm, December 1990

TROUBLED TIMES The effects of the NDP victory in Ontario; Dian Cohen, October 1990 (Opinion)

INTEREST RATE SPECULATION Worldwide events could mean interest rates staying at historic highs; Dian Cohen, May 1990 (Opinion)

REDISTRIBUTING SCARCITY New networks of social and political activists are emerging who will define our national agenda; Dian Cohen, April 1990 (Opinion)

EMPLOYEE STOCK PLANS

WHEN BULLS TURN INTO BEARS Promoting employee stock plans in bear-market times; Lorraine Gilbert, September 1990

FINANCIAL MARKETS

BREAKING THE FALL The solution to rapid market swings lies in the computer; Tristram Lett; April 1990

FUTURES SHOCK Index arbitrage does not contribute to market volatility; Tristram Lett; March 1990

FLEXIBLE BENEFITS

COMMUNICATIONS IS THE KEY When implementing a flexible benefits plan, communication is key; Nancy Bramm, May 1990

HOW TO PREDICT FLEX BENEFITS COST The role of employee surveys in a flexible benefits plan; V.J. Pruegger and T.B. Rogers, January/February 1990

GLOBAL CUSTODY

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS Global custodial services are in the mainstream; Pat Ristich, October 1990

GROUP INSURANCE

REHAB REVELATIONS Rehabilitating a disabled worker can reduce long-term disability claims; Nancy Bramm, June 1990

CHECKS AND BALANCES Claims audits can reduce group benefit costs; Kathy Horahan, June 1990

MAKING THE RIGHT MOVES Containing group insurance costs may require changing insurance carriers; Irene Klatt, June 1990

HEALTHCARE PROGRAMS

COST OF PRIVACY Technology networks offers way to cut healthcare costs—but individual privacy may be the tradeoff; Dian Cohen, January/February 1990 (Opinion)

INDEX FUNDS

GETTING MORE FOR YOUR MONEY The growing trend of index bond management; Gilles Tremblay, July/August 1990

INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT

A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE Pension fund managers should reassess their asset mix and leave the comfort of the United States; Harry S. Marmer, October 1990

GROWING ALTERNATIVES Investing in emerging markets; Steve Bates and Philippa Armitage, October 1990

BON VOYAGE The impact on asset mix as pension fund investments move offshore; Paul Williams, May 1990

LABOR RELATIONS

THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN' Labor leaders say a co-operative approach is necessary to overcome the challenges of the nineties; Dian Cohen, March 1990

BALLPARK JUSTICE Canadian courts are taking the employer's point of view in severance disputes; Nancy Bramm, March 1990

LEGISLATION

GST Q & A How the proposed Goods and Services Tax will affect benefit plans; Ian Bancroft and Andrew Yorke, December 1990

NOW WHAT? The pension industry is hoping that Ontario premier Bob Rae won't keep all his pre-election promises; Nancy Bramm, November 1990

EDITORIAL INDEX

ARE RRSPs THE ANSWER UNDER TAX REFORM? A projection of individual's retirement income under various scenarios; Randall Dutka and Ian Markham, July/August 1990

BILL C-52 A look at the political process involved in the passing of the tax reform; Nancy Bramm, July/August 1990

THE PARENT TRAP Implications of Bill C-21, the legislation dealing with parental leave; Dian Cohen, June 1990 (Opinion)

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

HIDDEN LIABILITIES Benefits issues in mergers and acquisitions; Guy Jobin, March 1990

PARENTAL BENEFITS

THE PARENT TRAP Implications of Bill C-21, the legislation dealing with parental leave; Dian Cohen, June 1990 (Opinion)

PAY EQUITY

PAY EQUITY'S CURVE BALL The Ontario Human Rights Commission enters the pay equity fray; Nancy Bramm; May 1990

PENSION MANAGEMENT

THE FEE FIXATION Should management fees be tied to performance?; Dian Cohen, November 1990 (Opinion)

A COSTLY DECISION Making an informed decision on fund management style; Michael Warrender, October 1990

MULTIPLE MANAGERS A look at the rates of return of five different manager styles; Malvin Spooner, May 1990

HOW DO YOU MEASURE SUCCESS? Customized benchmarks allow pension plan sponsors to assess the decision-making skills of their money managers; Robert Auger and Denis Parisien, April 1990

PENSION PLANS —DEFINED BENEFIT

ANTI-AVOIDANCE RULES The way in which anti-avoidance rules affect pension plans; Vern Krishna, November 1990

IN-HOUSE SOLUTIONS Bringing defined benefit pension administration in-house can reduce costs and complexity; Nancy Bramm, June 1990

ON DEATH ROW Legislation enshrining the validity of contribution holidays is needed or the defined benefit plan may be doomed; Peter C. Hirst, April 1990

PENSION PLANS —EXECUTIVE

THE TOP-UP TWO-STEP How to design an adequate executive retirement arrangement; Karen Zilli and Dean Connor, June 1990

PENSION PLANS —MULTI-EMPLOYER

SMEPs Changing a registered pension plan to a specified multi-employer pension plan; Murray Gold, October 1990

SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR SMEPs The proposed federal tax legislation rules for specified multi-employer plans replace old inequities with new ones; Sheryl Smolkin, May 1990

PENSION PLANS —PUBLIC

CONTAINING COSTS Containing pension costs in collective bargaining; Peggy McCallum, December 1990

PENSION REFORM —BRITISH COLUMBIA

LAST BUT NOT LEAST A review of Bill 44, B.C.'s pension standards proposal; Frederick L. Abbott, September 1990

PENSION REFORM —QUEBEC

BILL 116: A NEW SET OF INVESTMENT RULES Quebec pension plan sponsors reaction to Bill 116's new investment rules; Robert Blais and Wendy Brodkin, January/February 1990

PENSION SURPLUSES

ONE STEP CLOSER With United Steelworkers working out a surplus contract with Stelco, the industry may be closer to resolving the issue; Dian Cohen, December 1990 (Opinion)

THE ONGOING SURPLUS SAGA The underlying promises in pension plans must be understood before the surplus issue can be resolved; Gerald F. Schnurr, December 1990

SURPLUS DEBATE LIES IN LIMBO Stakeholders must rally their arguments over who owns pension surplus; Dian Cohen, September 1990 (Opinion)

ON DEATH ROW Legislation enshrining the validity of contribution holidays is needed or the defined benefit plan may be doomed; Peter C. Hirst, April 1990

PENSION SURPLUS What the courts and pension commissions are saying about pension surplus in the event of a plan wind-up; Ian McSweeney, April 1990

OH, WHAT A LOVELY BUNCH OF SURPLUSES New pension accounting rules resulted in healthy surpluses in Canada's largest companies; Darroch Robertson, January/February 1990

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT

HOW DO YOU MEASURE SUCCESS? Customized benchmarks allow pension plan sponsors to assess the decision-making skills of their active money managers; Robert Auger and Denis Parisien, April 1990

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT BENEFITS CANADA's second annual roundtable discusses the need for standardization; March 1990

HOME SWEET HOME C-TUCS fourth quarter performance measurement results; Paul Williams, March 1990

PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

NICE GUYS FINISH FIRST The correlation between Top 500 companies and happy employees; Nancy Bramm, September 1990

TERMINATION TACTICS A look at a national survey on termination practices; Nancy Bramm, May 1990

MONEY CAN'T BUY ME LOVE Today's professionals predict the 21st century will see salaries as a minor detail, and happiness the number one priority; Nancy Bramm, April 1990

PLAN DESIGN

TO BUILD A BETTER PENSION PLAN Taking a fresh look at pension plan design in light of tax reform; Randall Dutka and Ian Markham, September 1990

PRO-CHOICE A 'choice plan' may be the new pension option; Denis Larose and Duncan McCallum, July/August 1990

THE GREAT PENSION CHALLENGE A trio of plan designers solve the first annual Smithfield saga; June 1990

PLAN DESIGN When a plan sponsor should seek legal advice in the design and implementation of pension plan documents; Randy V. Bauslaugh, March 1990

REAL ESTATE

EMBRACING REAL ESTATE While some investors are bailing out of real estate, many pension funds are doing just the opposite; Lori Bak, November 1990

REAL ESTATE A special BENEFITS CANADA supplement on real estate; May 1990

HASSLE-FREE REAL ESTATE INVESTING Using mortgage-backed securities to enhance returns at reduced risk; Robert Falconer, May 1990

RRSPs

GROUP RRSPs Plan sponsors are turning to group RRSPs as government regulation bogs down traditional retirement vehicles; Nancy Bramm, December 1990

ARE RRSPs THE ANSWER UNDER TAX REFORM? A projection of individual's retirement income under various scenarios; Randall Dutka and Ian Markham, July/August 1990

TAXATION

LEMON AID Communicating the new tax rules to employees; Andrew Webster, December 1990

PAs MADE EASY What you need to know to calculate pension adjustments; Sharon Syvret Terry, December 1990

TO BUILD A BETTER PENSION PLAN Taking a fresh look at pension plan design in light of tax reform; Randall Dutka and Ian Markham, September 1990

LUMP SUM TRANSFERS How the new tax rules affect the transfer of a lump sum from a registered pension plan to a terminated employee's RRSP; Philip Friedlan, September 1990

MY HEARTFELT SYMPATHIES The new income tax amendments have put an unprecedented burden on administrators; Dian Cohen, July/August (Opinion)

BILL C-52 A look at the political process involved in the passing of the controversial tax reform; Nancy Bramm, July/August 1990

ARE RRSPs THE ANSWER UNDER TAX REFORM? A projection of individual's retirement income under various scenarios; Randall Dutka and Ian Markham, July/August 1990

WELLNESS PROGRAMS

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE Stress management programs, once the domain of CEOs, are reaching beyond corporate boardrooms; Nancy Bramm, November 1990